

DRILLING WASTE MANAGEMENT

With integrated environmental site assessment, remediation, reclamation and oilfield services, we have the ability to limit the liabilities that can be caused during drilling waste disposal. By maximizing our on-site involvement and expertise, we are able to help clients make decisions that can significantly reduce the end of life costs associated with your projects.

Our team of drilling waste professionals work with regulatory bodies to ensure compliance and are experts in all regulations and industry recommended practices.

Services

- Landspray While Drilling (LWD)
- Landspray After Drilling (LAD)
- Landspreading
- Drilling Fluid Pump Off
- Mix-Bury-Cover (MCB)
- Residual Solids Disposal (RSD)
- Alternate Disposal Options for Advanced Mud Options (Subsurface Fluid & Class I, II Landfills)
- Cement Return Management
- Shallow Gas & CBM Project Management
- Oil Sands Exploration Project Management
- Heavy Oil Project Management
- High-pressure Directional Drilling Waste Management
- Drilling Waste Disposal Notification Preparation & Submission Including Consultation with Applicable Regulatory Authorities