

ON-SITE SAFETY & SUPERVISION

Our dedicated team of highly trained safety advisors provide on-site consulting to meet your company's safety management system needs and to ensure all legislative requirements and safety management systems are being followed.

Our full range of comprehensive safety services bring together specialized equipment and safety professionals to support all of your on-site work activities. From drilling and completions, plant maintenance and shutdowns, to construction operations, Vertex has the safety support services to meet your operational needs.

Services

- Construction Safety Officers (CSO) - are available to provide coaching and compliance support services to large and small construction projects.
- Drilling & Completion Safety - drilling and completions safety personnel work to assess drilling and completion operations for safe work procedures and provide ongoing coaching to operational personnel.
- Contract Personnel - Vertex offers contract in-house safety personnel to supplement your safety management system. We utilize our network of professionals to find the right candidate for a key position.
- Oilfield Inspections:
 - Drilling Rig Inspections
 - Service Rig Inspections
 - Oil Lease & Pipeline Inspections
 - Oilfield Facility Inspections
 - Regulatory Compliance Audits

