

SEGREGATED ENVIRO BINS

With a unique bin design that features side doors, eliminating the need for steps or walkways, our segregated enviro bins are safer than traditional bins from both an environmental and personnel perspective. Readily available, our segregated enviro bins are used on numerous construction, oil and gas, pipeline, industrial and commercial projects. With separate compartments for steel/metals, recyclables and general waste, our enviro bins remove the need to have multiple bins on your work site.

Vertex offers the following options for waste management and recycling:

- Segregated Enviro Bins
